Bethel Band Heads Parade—Flag Raising, Games, Field Events Complete Program

On Monday, May 23, the union of schools which includes the towns of Bethel, Greenwood, Gilead, Newry and Upton (including the schools of Mason) held its first Play Day. Approximately 525 boys and girls, nearly 100% representation, attended this gala day event and made up a group of youngsters of which these towns may well be proud.

Play Day, as the name implies, is a day to bring together the groups of children from the various towns in a spirit of good fellowship while at the same time it has a deep and significant meaning based on the promotion of the health program which has been arranged by the State Health Department and conducted by the teachers in the schools.

In the afternoon the boys and girls with their teachers grouped together at the Primary School grounds, each school bearing distinguishing insignia, and the leaders carrying banners with the names of the schools. Although the day had been cloudy and threatening, at 2 o'clock as they were formed for the march it seemed as if All Nature smiled and was glad as the sun shone in all its glory upon these children as they marched down Philbrook Avenue, up Main Street, down Church Street to the Gould Academy campus, to the stirring strains of the Bethel Band. It was an impressive sight and a large and interested audience of parents and friends lined the streets to witness the parade and the following events.

Grouped in a semi-circle around the flag pole, the flag raising ceremony took place during which the band played "The Star Spangled Banner." After the pledge of allegiance to the flag was given all sang two verses of America accompanied by the band. The seven point pupils were grouped in front in the semi-circle. The band then preceded the march to the G. A. athletic field where supervised games suitable to the ages of the children with competitive games for the older ones took place. So systematic was the arrangement of the various activities, each group found its position by means of flags and badges of corresponding colors without the slightest delay or error.

This health program stresses attention to the child's physical education through supervised play activities, certification of health and dental attention as well as many other phases, and stimulates in the child the desire to attain and preserve perfection of health.

It is interesting to learn that in this group there were 166 children who rated 100% in health points. The earnestness and sincerity with which these boys and girls have striven to attain their points of health is an example that is worthy of the attention of the older ones.

The manner in which the parents have cooperated with their children and the teachers in promoting this health program has been most gratifying to the superintendent and teachers in charge.

The Bethel Band played an important part in the success of the

Mr. and Mrs. Zenas Mills Married 50 Years

On Sunday, May 22, Mr. and Mrs. Zenas Mills of Albany celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Mrs. Mills, who was Miss Mary Barker, and Mr. Mills were married at the Universalist Church at Norway by the Rev. Mrs. Angell. They started housekeeping where they now live, but after they had lived there about a year they moved to Norway where they lived for about 26 years. In May 1915 they moved back to Albany to the place where they now live.

At noon a picnic lunch was served to the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Zenas Mills, and to their children and families: Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill Mills, Frances, Robert, Marian and Richard Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mills, Bryant Pond; Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Mills and son Milton, Norway; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bunker, Mrs. Marian Colby and son Earl, East Poland; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Mills and daughter, Marie, Bethel; Mr. and Mrs. Verne Mills, John, Donald and Mary Ellen Mills, and Ray Mills of Albany. Others who enjoyed the picnic lunch were Mr. and Mrs. John Silver and Roy Grover of Gorham and Mrs. Ada Mills of Gorham, N. H. The wedding cake was made by Mrs. Amy Bunker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mills, and was decorated by Mr. Bunker.

In the afternoon ice cream and cake were served to more than 30 friends and relatives who came to extend congratulations to the happy couple.

ANDREWS CHILD NEARLY DROWNS

What was intended for a pleasure week-end came very near ending in a sad tragedy. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Andrews of South Woodstock were entertaining a party of friends at the Andrews camp at Pleasant Pond, Sumner, Sunday afternoon. Their year and a half old daughter, Muriel Aurete was with them and supposedly playing on the front porch, but on being missed was seen floating on the water by the father who valiantly went into the water after his little daughter, and after a hard struggle brought her ashore. Lewis J. Mann of West Paris also a member of the party worked over the child for more than a half hour before she was revived. A doctor was rushed to the camp after which the child was brought home, apparently but little the worse for the so near tragedy.

GOULD WALLOPS SOUTH PARIS

With the first four men in the batting order getting 11 of Gould's 13 hits the local diamond crew had little trouble defeating a ragged playing South Paris nine. Brown, Wentzell, and Robertson each connected for three hits. Johnson had two hits and three walks in six trips to bat. Brown and Clayton Crockett each connected for three-baggers.

South Paris gathered eight hits off McFarland. Three of them were bunched in eight inning but they failed to score; their only run accounted for by a hit, an error, and another hit in the first inning. Nine runs in the first two innings sent Hubbard from the mound. Munce, taking his place was more effective but he found the going pretty tough in places too.

This victory clinches second place in the Western Maine Conference for Gould. The locals now have only one league game left to play and that with the league leading Fryeburg team. A win over Fryeburg would mean another tie for championship honors between these two schools this year.

BETHEL TO ASK FOR P. O. BUILDING

Petition in Circulation Gives Hope for Government Project — More Room Needed

Encouraged by announcement of plans for the construction of several post office structures in the state, a petition is being circulated in an effort to obtain a building for the Bethel office. The present quarters have been crowded for some time, as mail is handled here for three rural delivery routes, two star routes and three post offices. The petition has been accepted very favorably. It is said that the only principal objection is that some fear the building would be located down street, as has been agitated from time to time in past years.

Gould Swamps Gorham

Gould Academy had little trouble defeating Gorham High for the second time. With Eddy Robertson batting in his old form getting four hits including a double the team collected 17 hits for 17 runs. Keddy was also in hitting form connecting for a triple and two singles. One of his singles struck the dormitory and bounced back into the fielder's hands holding Keddy on first. Johnson also connected for three hits, all of them singles.

The visitors secured 7 hits with O'Connor collecting three of those. McFarland started for Gould and held the losers to five hits in five innings, when he was "taken-out" because of a lame muscle in his shoulder. "Slim" Keddy performed well in the relief role allowing only two hits in the four innings he toiled.

"GIVE me a kiss! Give me a kiss!" came suddenly through the honeysuckle vine on Mrs. Remarko's piazza.

"The impudence," ejaculated Miss Althea Street, sixty, serious and severe, stopping short in her hurried walk past the house of Mrs. Remarko. It was raining—raining hard!

"I consider your remark an insult!" she said severely, tilting her umbrella back to get a better view of her insolent, but just then the screen door, opening upon the piazza, suddenly banged and Scamparino Remarko hurriedly came forth. "Oh, that bird, that bird—she has me crazy, Miss Althea!"

"But, Scamparino," said Miss Althea, taking a few steps towards the pretty little Italian girl, who had been her pupil four years ago—"where did Polly hear such a remark—she sounds just like a man. Surely there is no romance in your family as yet—is there?" and she looked quizzically at her young neighbor.

"Miss Althea, there is. And that bird—she will give it away. Poor Luigi! Just once he whispered when he was alone," pleaded Scamparino, as her face took the color of the reddest roses.

"Will you take care of her while I am away on my vacation and teach her to talk nice—friendly-like, and make her forget to say that awful thing?" pleaded Scamparino. "Mamma does not like Luigi—she thinks he should have more money and talk better the English language. Tomorrow I go away, and mamma will surely find out, once she hears that terrible bird. She sounds so much like Luigi!"

"I'll take her and teach her a few things," assured Miss Althea. Two weeks later Scamparino came home and Polly was returned as cured.

A few days afterwards, when Miss Althea was passing the home of Mrs. Remarko, that lady called cheerfully to her:

"Stop on your way back, Miss Althea, I have a fine bottle of imported olive oil for you—it is truly delicious!"

In about half an hour Miss Althea returned laden with innumerable small packages from the grocer's, and ascended her neighbor's piazza steps. When she reached the top she dropped every package she had, for a distinct, sibilant whisper came from the shadowy honeysuckle vine: "Give me a kiss!"

"What did she say?" asked the startled Mrs. Remarko.

"Give me a kiss!" again pleaded Polly, secure in her own domain. "That's new!" ejaculated her mistress. "I wonder where she heard that!" She looked curiously at Miss Althea, her comely countenance wrinkling in amusement and smiling suspicion.

"Ah, ha," she cried at last, "Miss Althea, you have a beaut! You have a beaut!"

Then the silent opening of the screen door made her raise her eyes to behold Scamparino Remarko standing within its frame.

"Why, Scamparino, you are getting to be a woman!" she cried in astonishment, marveling at the majesty of the girl. The mother's eyes shone with pride.

"She'll be seventeen next Sunday, Miss Althea."

"All my children are growing up," regretted Miss Althea; and then, sensing a critical opportunity, she continued:

"Only today I met Luigi de Pasquale coming out of the National bank. He told me he had just purchased the magazine rights in the Biltmore."

"That big hotel?" asked Mrs. Remarko, impressed.

"He was with Angela Vervena, the consul's daughter." The little figure in the doorway stiffened, but Miss Althea went smilingly on:

"Luigi was once my best pupil. He has brains and is quite the handsomest boy I ever taught. I think he'll go far."

"Maybe you should invite him to your birthday party, Scamparino," conceded the mother.

The screen door quietly closed and anon Scamparino's soft voice was heard telephoning.

PROPER EXPOSURE

Brilliantly lighted beach subjects, with no harsh shadows, take less exposure. For this, 1/25 at f.16 (or the large lens opening on a box camera). If subject faces sun, or for a "long-shot" beach view, use f.22 or the small lens opening on a box camera).

MANY writers make a great to-do about exposure, so that it seems complicated. As a matter of fact, for most ordinary subjects out of doors, it is simple.

Light in very early morning or late afternoon is quite weak, but from an hour or so after sunrise to about an hour before sunset, it is fairly constant in its intensity. During the middle daylight hours, camera loaded with chrome type or "pan" type film, set your lens and shutter as follows:

Open landscape, 1/25, f.8.
Water or beach scenes, 1/25, f.8.

When you must use a high shutter speed, use a larger lens opening. Remember that 1/25 second at f.11 is the same as 1/50 at f.8, and about the same as 1/100 at f.6.3 or 1/200 at f.4.5.

Follow these exposures this spring and summer, and you won't go wrong. If you use a box camera, take snapshots on bright days only. On a dull day, place the box camera on a firm support and give a very short time exposure (one-half to one second, or about as fast as you can work the shutter when on "Time") using the small lens opening.

With any camera, when you are taking pictures shortly after sunrise or before sunset, you must use a larger lens opening, or a slower shutter speed. At such times, light tends to be yellow and the "pan" type film will be best as it is definitely faster in such light.

THE LOW DOWN from HICKORY GROVE

People who are living now, they are living in a great era. The historians will give it a name. They will maybe call it the hurrah age, or the era of baloney, or the hokey and hokum period. But whatever it is, our grand-son and granddaughter, they will snicker—and it will be good reading—and comical.

And I am quite a hand for comedy versus drama, so I am not so excited about it.
And in the end, things will get straightened out, and the tellers who have their names on the front page now, they will not even be in the history index.

But the reason I am shootin' off here, like I am, is because I just see where they are going to cure the depression all over again—just like they did the last time. And it is like a dog with his tail in his mouth—and he goes 'round and 'round, but don't get any place.

And if I was some kind of a comedian or other, like this Mr.
Allen or Andy Devine, I would not feel too secure—with so much competition down there on the banks of our Potomac.

Yours, with the low down,
JO SIERRA

The last federal territory admitted into the Union as a state was Arizona. On June 20, 1910, congress passed an "enabling act" providing for the admission of both Arizona and New Mexico. New Mexico was formally admitted on January 6, 1912, and Arizona on February 14 of the same year.

Meaning of Term Jeune Fille

The French term jeune fille literally means young girl, but that is not its exact equivalent. In France it signifies the carefully chaperoned young woman between the ages of fifteen and twenty-one. In this country the terms subdeb and deb come nearer than any others to convey the meaning.

Comply With Mosale Law

Many orthodox Jews comply with the Mosale law that requires a bachelor to marry his deceased brother's widow when she has no heir.
If he refuses, according to a correspondent in Collier's Weekly, she cannot marry anyone else until a formed, during which she returns the insult, in the presence of judges and witnesses, by removing a shoe from her brother-in-law's foot.

Do Not Leave Wills

On some of the islands of the

do not leave wills or oral bequests, preferring to divide their property after their death through spiritual

Collier's Weekly, the heirs are usuone received the wrong share or too raised a rumpus."

Open Letter to a Speeder

Travelers Safety Service

I SAW YOU barely miss a little boy on a tricycle this afternoon and heard you yell, "Get the H— out of the way! Don't you know any better than to ride in the street?" He didn't answer because he hasn't learned to talk very well yet. So I'm going to answer for him.

No, the little boy doesn't know any better than to ride his tricycle in the street. He has been warned not to, but little boys don't always heed warnings. Some adults don't either, especially traffic warnings; for example, the one limiting the speed of automobiles.

I'm going to tell you something about that little boy. He has a mother who endured considerable inconvenience, anxiety and suffering to bring him into the world. He has a father who has worked hard and made many sacrifices to make him healthy and happy. The supreme purpose of their lives is to have their little boy grow up to be a useful man.

Now stop a minute and think. If you should kill a child, how would you feel facing its parents? What excuse could you possibly offer Him whose Kingdom is made up of little children?

Children, my hasty friend, were here long before you or your automobile were thought of. All the automobiles on earth are not worth the life of one little boy. We don't know what that little boy may some day be. But we know what you are, and it's unimportant. We could get along without you, but we can't spare a single little boy on the street.

THESE ARE LIFESAVERS

THAT'S what Consumers Information calls these workers in a Pittsburgh glass plant, who are testing and finishing non-shatterable glass for use in automobiles. It is explained that one of the greatest hazards in auto accidents used to be flying glass, which was the most common cause of injury. Now all American cars are equipped with the shatter-proof variety, developed by American industrial research experts especially for this purpose, and the saving of many lives is the result. The man shown above keeps a constant vigil with his pyrometer, to assure proper melting conditions. The girl at the left is polishing the rough edges of a car window.

Origin of Name America

The name America was first applied to the continental regions of the Western hemisphere by Martin Waldseemuller, a young geographer at Saint-Die, a town in the Vosges mountains. In a Latin work which he edited in 1507 he used the name America in honor of Amerigo (Americus) Vespucci, whose narrative of the latter's voyages to the New World Waldseemuller had read. "Because Americus discovered it," wrote the geographer, "it ought to be called the land of Americus or America."

Richard Stevens and Miss Hulda Stearns were given a surprise shower Saturday by Mrs. Augustus Carter in honor of their approaching marriage. Nearly 50 friends and relatives gathered at the home of L. C. Stevens where the rooms were decorated with apple blossoms. The bride and groom to be sat under an archway of apple blossoms and unwrapped many beautiful and useful gifts. After the larger gifts were examined a large maybasket was brought in full of smaller gifts. After the gifts were disposed of ice cream and cake were served and later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. A. LISTEN TO THIS

By TOM FIZDALE

Most colorful radio story of the week is the ride of the Ranch Boys, singing cowboy trio of the "National Barn Dance," who started their horseback trek from the Pacific to the Atlantic just to prove that they can ride and that the American pioneer spirit is not dead.

Jack Ross

Their long stretch in the saddle will take them across valley, mountains, deserts and plains, back-trailing the early pioneers. They will be picked up each Saturday night, when possible, on the Barn Dance broadcasts and send telegraphic reports of their progress on other Saturday nights. Headed by Jack Ross, they're carrying a white Stetson and chaps to Uncle Ezra which will be autographed by mayors of towns en route. They figure it will take them twelve weeks to ride to Chicago for the first break in their journey—which seems strange in this day of streamlined travel.

Eddie Cantor and his Caravan crew are back in Hollywood with Eddie well on the road to recovery from his recent illness in New York. Took Hattie Noel, sensational colored comedienne he recently discovered, and Edgar Fairchild's orchestra back with him. He'll start work on a new picture in July. Phil Baker's a papa again—rounding out his quartet of two boys and two girls. Judy Starr, Hal Kemp's vocalist, heartbroken over loss of her cherished charm bracelet. Amos 'n' Andy have moved back to Hollywood from their Palm Springs homes. Must be summer.

Big moving day on the networks coming up May 30 when "Betty and Bob," "Arnold Grimm's Daughter," "Valiant Lady," "Betty Crocker" and "Hymns of All Churches" move from CBS to NBC. Will be heard at 12 noon, C. S. T., then instead of 11 a. m.

Richard Himber, maestro of the CBS "Monday Night Show," brings up the point that handclappers themselves seem to be the big writers of hit tunes. Check him up yourself. Don Ameche and Jack Benny are vacationing together on a desert ranch near Palm Springs. Chet Lauck of "Lum and Abner" taking his family on European jaunt when their show folds for summer. Fanny Brice just had a "Baby Snooks" shock herself when she found that one oak tree transplanted on her new lawn cost $750. Clark Dennis, Fibber McGee's tenor, has taken up farming in Michigan.

Joan Winters

Talent has been discovered in strange places but none more so than the DeVore Sisters of NBC's "Vocal Varieties" who got their break when a visitor heard them harmonizing while doing dishes. Tim and Irene, NBC comedy team, have joined the ranks of amateur farmers. Jan Garber, Burns and Allen maestro, is radio's number one baseball fan. Connie Osgood, Bret Morrison and Joan Winters latest additions to starful "Attorney at Law" cast.

Bing Crosby celebrated his 34th birthday this month. Bob Trout, CBS commentator, saw his first Kentucky Derby this year, although it was the fourth time he had attended. Always did color description before from some spot where he couldn't see the race. Clarence Stroud, of the twins, is keeping dates with the girl who was granted her second divorce from him a few weeks ago. Connie Boswell goes most married women one better by wearing two wedding rings—the second a good luck piece.

Radio listeners will hear America's favorite Western star, Gene Autry, Monday, May 30, for the first time in many a moon when he makes a guest appearance on his CBS Caravan show.

It will be the initial appearance for the star, who receives more fan mail than any man in Hollywood, since Republic studios gave him his new contract permitting radio appearances. Autry rose to fame via radio and it seems only fitting that radio fans should be entitled to hear him on the air as well as in pictures.

Eileen Palmer

America's favorite farm program, "The National Farm and Home Hour," celebrates its triennial on NBC with 3,000 hours of broadcasting, June 27. Known as the "Nation's Bulletin Board of Agriculture," it has carried the voices of American farm leaders throughout the country each week day since October 2, 1928, and is heard on more than 90 stations.

Latest reports on television progress indicate that it's still a long way around the corner as far as you listeners are concerned. Jim Ameche and Betty Lou Gerson, presently starring on "Attorney at Law" on NBC, got the call to fill Tyrone Powers' radio spot this summer. Show titled, "Win Your Lady." Uncle (NBC) Ezra's pet Percheron mare presented him with a filly last week. Anthony's "Original Good Will Hour" Sunday nights on Mutual is the tops. Life walking before the microphone.

Eileen Palmer, young Ohio girl who stepped into her first radio role on "Public Hero No. One" via NBC, is another Chicago bet for the movies. She's photogenic. Paul Whiteman doing series one night stands as well as CBS broadcasts. Phil Baker got the following wire after recent birth of fourth child: "Quit poaching, or I'll take up the accordion.—Eddie Cantor."

Gene Autry

Richard Himber, popular maestro of "The Monday Night Show" on CBS, was named most popular orchestra leader on the air this week in nation-wide listener poll. Margaretta Shanna, "Arnold Grimm's Daughter" on CBS, and Barbara Luddy, star of "Margot of Castlewood" which faded from NBC last week, both victims of freak accident. hit by heavy studio doors and almost knocked out. Incidentally, "Arnold Grimm's Daughter," "Hymns of All Churches," "Betty and Bob" and "Betty Crocker" will continue to be heard from Chicago and "Valiant Lady" from New York when they switch from CBS to NBC networks on May 30.

Gould to Play Town Team

On Friday, June 3rd, at 4 p. m. the Gould Academy nine will play Wally Morgan's Bethel team in a seven inning game. The game is necessarily cut short because of final examinations coming on Friday and Saturday of next week.

This will be the final home appearance for the Gould Club until the Graduation Day game against a strong Alumni team that is now being organized by Ralph Young.

The game is to start promptly at 4 o'clock with Lurvey as umpire.

The Gould nine plays no game this week-end due to the Oxford County Track Meet held at Hebron Academy on Saturday.

KENISTON ELECTED CAPTAIN OF GOULD TRACK TEAM

At a recent meeting of the Gould track lettermen Bob Keniston was elected captain of the 1938 track squad and Murray Thurston was elected to the same honor for 1939.

Keniston has been a consistent point gatherer for the past three years and throws the discus well over the 100 foot mark as well as taking points in the high jump.

His distances in the discus throw have compared favorably with those made by discus throwers in the larger high schools of the state.

Thurston narrowly missed placing in the hammer throw in the state meet last June, and has added over 30 feet to his distance this year. His recent heave of 122 feet topped first place for Gould in the track meet held with Norway High School last week.

Massachusetts is the second most densely populated state in the Union, with 514 persons to the square mile.

The population of Egypt is 5,904,525. The population of Cairo is 1,307,422. The population of Alexandria is 682,101.

A hotel at Bolzano, Italy, which refused to take in an Italian couple with four children has been closed for "action hostile to the state."

PLAY DAY—Continued from Page One day and their generosity is much appreciated by all who took part or witnessed the events.

The use of the G. A. campus for the flag raising and other activities was a friendly gesture and was also much appreciated by the townspeople.

Play Day is a day when each school is made to feel that they have an individual part in the larger group as a whole. It gives them the opportunity to mingle with their neighbor and makes for good sportsmanship. This spirit of good will was noticeably manifest in this their first Play Day. May there be many others to follow. Congratulations are extended to Miss Carrie Wight, who made this possible and to the teachers of all the schools who helped to carry it out in such a successful way.

The following are the awards in the competitive events: (Bethel pupils unless otherwise noted).

50 yard race for girls—1st, Marion Chapman; 2nd, Rosalie George; 3rd, Wilma Bean.
Running broad jump, boys—Grade 6: 1st, Francis Berry; 2nd, Willard Bean; 3rd, Billy Vall.

50 yard dash, boys—Grades 6, 7, and 8: 1st, Wilfred Lowe, Greenwood; 2nd, Carlos Smith; 3rd, Uis, Harold Merrill, Clarence Morgan.

ANDOVER HIGH SCHOOL 7—GOULD "B" TEAM 6

The Gould "B" Team dropped a close game at Andover Tuesday by committing three errors in the last inning to allow the home team to score the tying and winning runs.

The game had been held up by rain for 45 minutes, and so the playing conditions were far from perfect. Gould got away to a good lead in the first two innings by scoring five runs, but Andover kept trying and made the most of their seven hits to bring their total to five going into the last inning. These teams will play again at Bethel June 7. The summary is as follows:
